

H.Res. 933 – Commending the Louisiana State University Tigers football team for winning the 2007 Bowl Championship Series national championship game

FLOOR SITUATION

H.Res. 933 is being considered on the House floor under suspension of the rules and will require a two-thirds majority vote for passage. This legislation was introduced by Representative Richard Baker (R-LA) on January 18, 2008. The bill was referred to the House Committee on Education and Labor, but was never considered.

H.Res. 933 is expected to be considered on the House floor on January 28, 2008.

SUMMARY

H.Res. 933 resolves that the House of Representatives:

- Commends the Louisiana State University Tigers football team for winning the 2007 Bowl Championship Series national championship game
- Recognizes the achievements of all the players, coaches, and support staff who were instrumental in helping the Louisiana State University football team during the 2007 football season
- Congratulates the citizens of Louisiana, the Louisiana State University community and fans of Tiger football; and
- Directs the Clerk of the House of Representatives to make available enrolled copies of this resolution to Louisiana State University for appropriate display and distribution to the coaches and members of the 2007 Louisiana State University football team.

BACKGROUND

The Louisiana State University (LSU) Tigers football team won the national championship game against the Ohio State University Buckeyes by a score of 38 to 24 on January 7, 2008. The LSU football team finished the season with a record of 12-2 and was ranked #1 in the final Associated Press Top 25 college football poll and the final USA Today Coaches poll.

LSU also won the Southeastern Conference Championship on December 1, 2007, beating the University of Tennessee by a score of 21 to 14. LSU has won the NCAA football championship title twice in the last five years.

STAFF CONTACT

For questions or further information contact Shea Loper at (202) 226-2302.